River Drive in Moline an August Night. You watched me drive on by. Months of talkin' on the phone had led me there. Was it a sign to come? Would we try or cut and run?

(Chorus)

I found you on AOL. Were we in love? To soon to tell.
Chat rooms, I'm's and email were the means for how I fell in love with you on AOL. Were we in love time would tell. Made plans to meet face to face. Tried to find the perfect place on AOL.

Met one Sunday at a bowling lane in March. You know that was the start. Dinner for two at Applebees, the whole nine yards just you and me.

(Chorus)

I found you on AOL. Were we in love? To soon to tell.
Chat rooms, I'm's and email were the means for how I fell in love with you.

Nine years later still have the whole nine yards. You know we've come so far. Three kids, two dogs and a yard, love still alive within our hearts.

(Chorus)

I found you on AOL. The whole nine yards began so well. Chat rooms, I'm's and email were the means for how I fell in love with you.
