I feel too good to go to work today
I think I'll leave it up to someone else
I'm sick of waistin' all these sunny skies
I think I'll call in well
We'll jump the fence at old Johnston's farm
Ignore the warning sign that says keep out
We'll lay a blanket by the river side
And count the passing clouds
Oh, who's to say any day can't be Saturday
Monday's just a state of mind

Chorus:

We'll tell them I've gone dreamin'
That's all they need to know
Somewhere between heaven and Idaho
We're gonna thorw out the map
Make a new plan
Put my line in the water just to see what I land
Who knows what crazy notion I might reel in
We'll tell them I've gone dreamin'

I'm gonna write you a sweet love song
I'll play it for ya on my air guitar
Don't worry 'bout it if the words don't rhyme
I haven't got that far
We'll let our toes dangle in the stream
I'll put some wildflowers in my hair
And we'll pretend it's 1969, and we haven't got a care
Oh, yesterday's gone away it was never meant to stay
And tomorrow's comin' soon enough

Chorus:

We'll tell them I've gone dreamin'
That's all they need to know
Somewhere between heaven and Idaho
We're gonna thorw out the map
Make a new plan
Put my line in the water just to see what I land
Who knows what crazy notion I might reel in
We'll tell them I've gone dreamin'

I've gone dreamin'

Oh, who's to say that everyday can't be Saturday
Monday's just a state of mind

Chorus:

We'll tell them I've gone dreamin'
That's all they need to know
Somewhere between heaven and Idaho
We're gonna throw out the map
Make a new plan
Put my line in the water just to see what I land
Who knows what crazy notion I might reel in

Who knows what crazy notion I might reel in

Tell them I've gone dreamin'
Tell them I've gone dreamin'
Tell them I've gone dreamin'
Yeah
