With every part of my soul
It's just something I know
And in that beautiful place
I'll put my hand to your face
We'll be together then
I'm gonna see you again

Your love fills every inch of this room
Still I can't hold onto you
Like I did a thousand times before
What I'd give to do it once more
There were things I didn't say enough
No regrets I know I will cause

Chorus:
I'm gonna see you again
Don't know how or when
With every part of my soul
It's just something I know
And in that beautiful place
I'll put my hand to your face
We'll be together then
I'm gonna see you again

This is the last time
That you and I
Will ever have to say goodbye
Cause I know that I
I'm gonna see you again
And in that beautiful place
I'll put my hand to your face
We'll be together then
I'm gonna see you again

I'm gonna see you again
