I fell head over heels in love with you last night
After all those Mr. Moms I found Mr. Right I was just about to settle in When I got those feelings again the next thing that I knew,
I had on my walkin' shoes.

[Chorus]

There I go again,
Won't somebody please help me?
This merry-go-round that I'm on got me weak in the knees
running from the kind of love I wanted to fall in I don't know where how why what or when
But there I go again

I've tried therapy, psychology and wine
They all tell me there's a cure for my state of mind but they don't know what they're talking about Cause when I work, I'm working things out could my diagnosis be there's nothing wrong with me

[Chorus]

There I go again,
Won't somebody please help me?
This merry-go-round that I'm on got me weak in the
knees
running from the kind of love I wanted to fall in
I don't know where how why what or when
But there I go again

In Situations full of complications
Through the edge of reason,
I think I found my destination
There I go,

[Chorus]

There I go again,
Won't somebody please help me?

This merry-go-round that I'm on got me weak in the
knees
running from the kind of love I wanted to fall in
I don't know where how why what or when
But there I go again

No, I don't know where how why what or when
But there I go again
There I Go
