Sometimes you won life is the way it is Things don
But I believe that God and time are synonymous
And through time God reveals all things
Be still
Stand in love
Pay attention

I just want to testify
I just want to testify
I just want to testify
I just want to testify

When I look back on my life
I shudder when I think of the danger I put myself in
But amazing grace always carried me to safety
Knowing that I
No one could ever love me the way that you do
In spirit, mind, and body
I surrender myself to you

I just want to testify
I just want to testify
I just want to testify
I just gotta testify
So sweet the journey
When you learn to love yourself
Accept yourself
Forgive yourself
Respect yourself
Believe in yourself
Be yourself
With amazing grace as your constant friend

I am free of danger
I am free of fear
And my mind is at ease

I don
It

I just want to testify
I just want to testify
I just gotta testify
Amazing grace saved my life

I just want to testify
Oh amazing grace saved my life
Saved my life
Saved my life
I just gotta testify
