Listen to my heart
The time has come for true confession
We seem to grow apart
But change is one of loves concession

Don't let passion fade
Protect the vow me made
Can't we find a way to try?
Hold on to what is real
Everything we feel

Touch (Whisper)
Don't lose touch
Don't lose your touch
Baby my heart is crying
Don't lose touch
Don't lose your touch
It's not too late for trying
I need you so.

We lost our faith
Afraid that the spell might be broken
Caught in our ways
Too many words went unspoken
We can stand our ground
Proud of what we found
Good has come from how we've changed
Pretend this is day one
You know how it's done

Touch (Whisper)
Don't lose touch
Don't lose your touch

Baby my heart is crying
Don't lose touch
Don't lose your touch
It's not too late for trying

Don't lose touch
Don't lose your touch
Baby Comfort and guide me

Don't lose touch
Don't lose your touch
Spend a lifetime beside me
I need you so.

Don't let passion fade
Protect the vow we made
Can't we find a way to try?
Hold on to what is real
Everything we feel

Don't lose touch
Don't lose your touch
Baby my heart is crying
Don't lose touch
Don't lose your touch
It's not too late for trying

Don't lose touch
Don't lose your touch
Baby Comfort and guide me
Don't lose touch
Don't lose your touch
Spend a lifetime beside me
I need you so... ..
