[Chorus]

Hey here I go I'm a hobo
I grab my things and
I'll go down the road where I belong
Here I am running for that train
And one thing is for sure:
That I'll never be back again

Listen pretty baby
I am hangin' around too long
If you don't believe I'm leavin'
You just count the days I'm gone

Your ways were getting serious
Don't you know I'm not that kind of man
Love is too mysterious
That's why I'm hoboing again

[Chorus]

One thing, little lady
I can't explain quite what I mean
I can look like Marlon Brandon
But I'm a cyclist like Jimmy Dean

So you better just give up on me
And find yourself a decent man
And I'll be just a memory
When I am hoboing again

[Chorus]

And one thing is for sure:
That I'll never be back again
And one thing is for sure:
That I'll never be back again
And one thing is for sure:
That I'll never be back again
