I've got two arms that reach for you
I've got two eyes that watch for you
And I've got a heart full of love it's true for you you you I'd take the moon from the sky for you
And I'd climb a mountain high for you
And I'd drain the ocean dry it's true for you you you
You you only you you're what it takes to make my dreams come true
I got a little dog that wags his tail for you
I got a little boat that I'd sail for you And I'd like to spend my whole life through with you you
you

I've got something old something new Something borrowed something blue
And I've got a ring laid away it's true for you you you
I keep you happy and you'll never find I'll be yours and you'll be mine
And I'll be till the end of time with you you you
You you only you you're what it takes to make my
dreams come true
There's a cute little house that I'll buy for you
The minute that I say I do
And there I'll spend my whole life through with you you
you
