Bye bye baby bye bye I won't try to even say why
No use to sit and just cry this time baby it's baby bye bye

I walk the floor and wonder about you every day Never know what you're gonna do next or what you're gonna say

I don't think your love for me is true
For you couldn't do what you've been puttin' me through

So bye bye baby bye bye...

[steel]

You don't understand anything I've ever said Cause you act like our love life is something you're at I can't seem to get inside to you so there's just one thing left for me to do

Bye bye baby bye bye...

Bye bye baby bye bye...
