There's no reason
For fighting this way
There's no rhyme
In the words that we say

Don't you know the sun is gonna rise
The sun is gonna rise again?
Don't you know the sun is gonna rise
The sun is gonna rise again?

There's no beauty
In thoughts that betray
There's no peace
When your life's gone astray

Don't you know the sun is gonna rise
The sun is gonna rise again?
Don't you know the sun is gonna rise
The sun is gonna rise again?

Good and evil
Fighting for your soul
We are children
Standing in the coldest night

Don't you know the sun is gonna rise
The sun is gonna rise again?
Don't you know the sun is gonna rise
The sun is gonna rise again?
Don't you know the sun is gonna rise
The sun is gonna rise again?
