I heard a voice callin' out to me
Might've been a vision might've been a dream
It said some things will come and some will go
We're only here a moment don't you know

I don't claim to have all the answers
And i've got my share of questions
But if i don't follow blindly
It doesn't mean i've lost my way
I'm still on the journey
Headed down the road less traveled
I guess we're all gonna get there
In our own time and way

There's a bridge that leads to the other side
You'll know you've crossed when you arrive
Everyone will have a tale to tell
I'm gonna quench my thirst when i drink from that well
