Yeah, what up? This shiny suit man

Now, I know you've heard my name before

You know, whether it was out the mouths of other rappers

Or you know, the LOX or you know

Whoever else wanna say my name, 'Shiny Suit Man'

But they not wanna say my government name

My government name is Sean Combs, Sean John Combs

Some of you may even know me as Puffy, Puff Daddy or P. Diddy

But I just wanna get the record straight

That when they talking about the shiny suit

They talking about me

And I own this five hundred million dollar shiny suit

And, oh yeah, next time say my name

If you really a man, just call on 'Shiny Suit Man'
