Two weeks away feels like the whole world should have changed but i'm home now, and things still look the same i think i'll leave it till tomorrow to unpack, try to forget for one more night that i'm back in my flat on the road where the cars never stop going through the night
to a life where i can't watch the sun set, i don't have time, i don't have time i've still got sand in my shoes and i can't shake the thought of you

i should get on, forget you but why would i want to i know we said goodbye, anything else would have been confused
but i want to see you again tomorrow's back to work and down to sanity should run a bath and then clear up the mess i made before i left here try to remind myself that i was happy before i knew that i could get on a plane and fly away from the road where the cars never stop going through

the night
to a life where i can watch the sun set and take my time, take all our time two weeks away, all it takes, to change and turn me around i've fallen i walked away, and never said, that i wanted to see you again

been confused
but i want to see you again
