We slept in this room together but now you're gone
And it's so quiet I turn the TV on
We lived in this room together, we painted the walls
Now time doesn't stand still, it crawls

And I'm afraid to sleep
'Cause if I do I dream of you
And dreams are always deep
On the pillow where I weep

I never realized how much I was in love with you
Until you started sleeping with someone new
Last night I dreamed again and you were there
You kissed my face you touched my hair

And I'm afraid to sleep
'Cause if I do I dream of you
And dreams are always deep
On the pillow where I weep

Lying alone in the darkness
With the memory in my head
There's a big hole where my heart is
And a lonely feeling rollin' round my bed

And I'm afraid to sleep
'Cause if I do I dream of you
I'm afraid to sleep
'Cause if I do I dream of you

And dreams are always deep
On the pillow where I weep
On the pillow where I weep
I'm afraid to sleep
