I've been drinking
Kinda celebrating 'cause I've been thinking about my baby

I've been lonely
Kinda empty
Sleeping where ghosts don't find their home

Oh
What a day for a daydreamer
Spend my time thinking how lucky I am

'Cause I love everything about you
And have I told you how wonderful I think you are So hurry home
Hurry home to me
So hurry home
(Hurry home)
Hurry home to me
(Hurry home)

I've been smoking
Kinda contemplating
Doing nothing but that's alright with me

It's amazing that I'm not crazy
So much waiting but I know you'll come around

Oh
What a night for a light sleeper
Spend my time thinking how lucky I am

'Cause I love everything about you
And have I told you how wonderful I think you are
So hurry home
Hurry home to me
So hurry home
Hurry home to me
