You ask me where I go tonight
I go back to today last year
When me and you had to make each other happier
And there was hope with everything

It's hard enough to feel the world as it is
And hold on anything
Without these quiet times
You've brought round here

I'm gonna have to run away
I'm sure that I belong some other place
And I've seen another side of all I've seen
It keeps me wondering where my family is

It's hard enough to see the world as it is
And hold on anything
Without these quiet times
Comin' round here

Now I miss you
Now I want you
But I can't have you
Even when your here

I suppose I have to take you with me
Broken mind
I'd rather leave you here
To forget everything you've seen and known
Erase every idea

And you walk up in the street
And hold my hand and smile
Well I won't be taken in
'Cause I know how it turns out and it takes me back
To these quiet times comin' round here

Now I miss you
Now I want you
You're not coming back
And I need you
But I can't have you

Even when your here

Now I miss you
Now I want you
You're not coming back
And I need you
But I can't have you
Even when your here
