A thousand faces on a grey
Grey day
A million houses under dull
Dark sky

So much noise and so little time
Oh
River
Run me dry

A natural world with these strange men's votes
Go back home and lock your door

So much noise and so little time
Oh
River
Run me dry

River
Run me dry

Oh
River
Run me dry

Oh
River
Run me dry

Oh
River
Run me dry

Those big palm trees on an ocean breeze
Pico butter and deep blue seas

A thousand miles of clear blue sky
Taking time to let it pass me by

An empty space to my open door
A turning fan on a wooden floor

Drift away in the sweet sunshine
Welcome to this world of mine

Oh
River
Run me dry

Oh
River
Run me dry

Oh
River
Run me dry

Oh
River
Run me dry

Oh
River
Run me dry

Oh
River
Run me dry

Oh
River
Run me dry

Oh
River
Run me dry
