I hereby swear to put the past behind me
And if I fail may the world remind me that I know

Who I am
Where I should be
Where I'm going
What I could be
And time takes time
And life takes love
And time takes time

I hereby swear to put the past behind me
And if I fail may the world remind me that I know

Who I am
Where I should be
Where I'm going
What I could be
And time takes time
And life takes love
And time takes time
