Roll, roll, roll, roll, roll my heart
A never ending story
Roll, roll, roll, roll, roll my heart
Over all the seas

Roll, roll, roll, roll, roll my heart
A never ending story
Roll, roll, roll, roll, roll my heart
Till the end comes to me

I'm the man who will know every town
Every country, every crowd
A serious business that I call me own
I play for you holy tunes

I carry no weapons, I'm armed with dreams
Just listen if you have to know what it means
Maybe I can give you hope if you need some
A music man is giving love to you

Roll, roll, roll, roll, roll my heart
A never ending story
Roll, roll, roll, roll, roll my heart
Over all the seas

Roll, roll, roll, roll, roll my heart
A never ending story
Roll, roll, roll, roll, roll my heart
Till the end comes to me

The drug I shot now in your brain
Is the taste of freedom, check your leader
I don't wanna see anyone in chains
Let me be your dealer

Roll, roll, roll, roll, roll my heart
A never ending story
Roll, roll, roll, roll, roll my heart
Till the end comes to me
