I'm so surprised to see you here
The place you hated
I'm so amazed you'd talk to me
About how you made it
You still compete trying to defeat
Your inner demon
I think it's time for you to leave
With someone new
I think you'll do better
You're blinding me just like neon
You're so beautiful and so breakable just like neon light
Cold inside
Just like Neon
You're Like Neon
I hear an echo of the door
you've left behind
It makes a sound I've heard before
But this time I don't mind
I'm not sorry anymore
The way you gamble is the way you fall
Now, it took me a while to realize
That you're not better
That nothing's better
You're blinding me just like neon
You're so beautiful and so breakable just like neon light
Cold inside
Just like Neon
You're Like Neon
I don't mind
I don't care
I don't mind
I don't care
You're blinding me just like neon
You're so beautiful and so breakable just like neon light
Cold inside
Just like Neon
You're Like Neon
