Tomorrow I will go to San Francisco
I bought the flight by accident last night
Later I'll be dancing down in Rio
And Australia is on the other side

[Bridge]

I'm sick of this security I have with every step I ever
Make
It's like hell
Even if your words would fly like butterflies
I would not be afraid
'Cause there's nothing left to say

[Chorus]

Your commentary is not necessary
I made up my mind today
And noone can say
That it's too far away
Coz I made up my mind today
And I'm sure

Many years have passed, they stole my longing
A trip around the world has been my dream
Behind the wall of silent hope, still waiting
That a princess in a golden cage is freed

[Bridge, Chorus]

I will taste the air on every continent
And maybe find a place to stay
I'll think about your words when I see butterflies
And drink the best champagne
To your health

[Chorus(2x)]

Tomorrow I will go to San Francisco...
