Now I'm begging you for mercy,
Digging deep into my heart.
Will I ever lose my humor?
Will I ever become smart?

I see there's someone screaming in the mirror,
Someone, who really wants to get you back.
I really need you!
I really love you!

Stay with me!
Don't leave me alone!
I'm on my knees!

Stay with me!
Don't leave me alone!
Don't leave me alone!

All I have left is just one question -
How can you walk out of the door?
I need a little explanation
After all the promises you swore.

I really need you!
I really love you!
Don't you ever let me go?

Stay with me!
Don't leave me alone!
I'm on my knees!

Stay with me!
Don't leave me alone!
Don't leave me alone!

Stay with me!
And I swear, that I will change!

I will be a very good girl!

Stay with me!
Don't leave me alone!
I'm on my knees!

Stay with me!
Don't leave me alone!
Don't leave me alone!

Stay with me!
And I swear, that I will change!
I will be a very good girl!

Stay with me!
Stay with me!
Don't leave me alone!
I swear:
I will be a good girl!
I will be a good girl!
I will be a good girl!
