(Music: T. Mewes; Lyrics: Marta Jandová)

Come to a place where people go to
To talk, to see and to be seen
It makes you feel good, to see nice smiles
And her nice words about yourself
You think "I'm loved, they like me"

They lie, is it fear or game
They smile when I show my pain
Why is this the taste of fame
They lie, I cry
Lovely enemy

The world is getting bigger
With little tunnels to the world
'Cause when I find out, I shiver
Everybody's digging in the dirt

They lie, is it fear or game
They smile when I show my pain
Why is this the taste of fame
They lie, I cry
