(Music: T. Mewes; Lyrics: Marta Jandová)

Out in the yellow sky I see All that you could take from me I know it's not easy to go But if we want to survive, we have to grow

La with me in the ground tonight I'll show you what you doubt tonight I will show you my dreams and fantasy And try to make you all want to see
Out in the yellow sky I see All that you could take from me Why does all disapper what we had There might be nothing after, after our death

We can't make

We can't let go

We can't make it

We can't say no
