Go shed the old skin - for the new skin transgression let the old flesh - rotten to trash resurrection seize the old laws
riddled by flaws
perfection
open your mind
don't stay behind
progression
weakness - these days are over old flesh - replaced by shiny armour new thoughts - the mind expanding real tasks - that are demanding

this body is invincible perfection is the principle

feel the clockwork
of the new heart
precision
feed the engine
of your bloodstream
recondition
move your muscles
like a machine
direction
give your life
a new dimension
extension
