Bow down kiss the floor
I'm above the law
Riders at my side
Would you be my bride?
suck my juices dry
Toss the bones aside

No one ever understood you
Now you know they never will Make a sign that you're receiving
'coz I know my words are true
Somethings always interfering
Trying to block my way throught

Stars pinned to the sky
Shine when I decide
Watch the sea divide
Run now, dry your eyes
there's no time to cry
Weakness wont survive

Just a lotus in the sewer
But your roots grow deeper still
No one ever understood you
I'm the one who always will
