The webs they* weave will be designs of our demise reckless in this nuclear age with better judgment paralyzed they've sent our noble sons into a holy war we can't undo now there's no escape and a fiery hell to pay yet politicians proclaim visions of lasting love and peace as corporations feast like vultures on those in poverty we** bleed for gods and profits--deadly righteous causes

watch as history recycles itself and prepare to face a living hell nothing is sacred, no one is safe when faith or freedom are at stake mass destruction is mutually assured.

*they=the Bush administration, the ruling elite, the motherfuckers

**we=the average citizen, the soldier, the taxpayer, the civilians of war-torn countries
