It's hard to explain hoe I felt:
equal to no one, the boy in the back not an easy child, not in the game being marginalized, put aside fukin' thugs treating me bad (you) the bully = the first
(me) the loser = the last you know wonder why I hate you so much growing up as a geek, I'll have my revenge!

wimp! loser! asshole!
call me what you want!
i don't need your appreciation!

rather stay alone!

if I hate you, it's only your fault your ignorance, your blindness made me what I am finding a shelter in underground scum finding comforts in my own efforts screaming in your face that I'm different from you and a lot of kids are screaming the same but I still feel so alone and put aside definetely, I'm not a "social kinda guy"!
