I don't know who I am anymore
My road starts and stops Right outside your door
I'm feeling weak
And I can't sleep tonight

Never though that I would ever feel this way I'm hanging on to every word that you say
And I'm beating down
I come around
One look in your eyes and I am safe

Whatever you want I want Whatever you feel I feel
I follow you (3x)
But I keep losing me

You've taken all control of everything I know
And I miss the days when I was happy on my own When I could breath
When I could dream
So break my heart and give me back my soul

Whatever you want, I want
Whatever you feel, I feel
Cause I follow you (3x)
But I keep losing

Whatever you go, I go
Whatever you need, I need
See, I follow you, you know I do
I follow you
But I keep losing me

I can't face it anymore Just give and then you take a break you hesitate don't fake, you know it's true

I don't wanna be like this I'm invisible
one kiss and now was gone And now I feel so wrong

whatever you want, I want
whatever you feel, I feel I follow you, you know I do
I follow you

whatever you need, I need
I follow you
but I keep losing me

whatever you want, I want
cause(cuz) I.. but I keep losing me (2x)

the love in you is a sacrifice and ends up killing me
