At the break of dawn
I will keep you warm
Through the strongest storm
You wont be scared again

Like a northern star
You will guide my heart
So we'll never part
And won't feel any shame

Now I
Wake up and see you
This feeling is so new
Were making it come true
Even in a million years
I'll never find someone like you

As we face each day
Any doubts will fade
But its so hard to say all I want to say
I try to find the words
When youre lost and hurt
I want to be the first to make your pain go away
I'll make your pain go away

Always
I wake up and see you

This feeling is so new
Were making it come true

[Musical bridge]

I wake up and see you
This feeling is son new
Were making it come true
Even in a million years
I'll never find someone like you

At the break of dawn I will keep you warm
Through the strongest storm you wont be scared again

(Million years)

Like an open star you will guide my heart
So whenever part and dont feel any shame

(Million years)

At the break of dawn I will keep you warm
Through the strongest storm you wont be scared again

(Million Years)

Like an open star you will guide my heart
So whenever part and dont feel any shame
