Let's blow out these city lights
Let's just leave it all behind
Get up where the air is still
You can hear the whippoorwill
Start a fire, pass the 'shine
Won't be home till morning time
Shout your name out in the wind
Confess my love for you again
Give you all I got to give
That's how we live up on the ridge

(Chorus)

Won't you come join me tonight
Where moonlight drips into your eyes?
I just want one little kiss
When we get high up on the ridge

Hey now honey child
We'd be runnin free and wild
No one cares what you do
Ain't no law to answer to
Dance around in the dirt
Listen to them crickets chirp
Hear old Jake start to howl
When he hears that old hoot owl
Give you all I got to give

That's how we live up on the ridge

(Chorus)

Won't you come join me tonight
Where moonlight drips into your eyes?
I just want one little kiss
When we get high up on the ridge

Come on girl, it's almost dawn
Let's get it fore the magic's gone
Tall tall grass all around
Come on lay that blanket down
Wildflowers just like you
Lay on me like morning dew
Now take my hand, walk with me

Sun come up through them tall trees
Give you all I got to give
That's how we live up on the ridge

(Chorus)

Won't you come join me tonight
Where moonlight drips into your eyes?
I just want one little kiss
When we get high up on the ridge
I just want one little kiss
When we get high up on the ridge
