Laying in bed her head in a daze Blood on the wall, madness in her face not able to die, even the mind mutated this deceiving scene turns into crimson red

Never to be alone all cold in the dark

Possessed by a count of evil
a master of killing, herald of a new world
planting an anchor in her soul
mind's raging, long lost control

HUNGER FOR LIFE

The hunger for life as sense for being Gripping last breath right from the lips

a vanguard to lead in eclipse
... to be forgotten until the end ...

Sacrificing eyesight, just to see the world's end

"Just his light makes me shine ..."

Possessed by a count of evil
a master of killing, herald of a new world
mind's raging, long lost control
