Across a bridge up on the second floor me on the couch you on the bed you told me about your lovers i can't remember all the dumb things i said lighters flamed and we got wasted you played the queen i played the clown i broke down and said i liked ya you just kinda smiled then let me down it seems this fantasy was never meant to be so i'll be strong and sing my song about a girl who don't want me maybe i should steal from van gough and wrapped in tin send her my ear with a note says "my dear without you there are no words i've left to hear" it seems this fantasy was never meant to be so i'll be strong and sing my song about a girl that don't want me lately i feel like a thousand rainy days so send some sunshine soon to alleviate my haze and phone my parents please and tell 'em i'll be home in an hour with nothing to do so leave a light on
