What should I do?
Giving presents makes no sense.

I only wanted a simple gift,
But you overdid it this year.
Then I ask you what you want,
And you reply with:

Hollow chocolate bunnies of death,
Why would you want this?
I'll buy it for you and then,
Smash its head in,
And set it on fire,
Then pack it back up,
And send it to you.

What do you think of me now?
I'm not that caring person,
You thought that I was.
So now, what will you do?

Hollow chocolate bunnies of death,
I can't believe that's what you want.
I'll buy it for you and then,
Smash its head in,
And set it on fire,
Then pack it back up,
And send it to you.

(Instrumental Break)

Hollow chocolate bunnies of death,
You won't be able to get it this year.
I'll buy it for you and then,
Smash its head in,
And set it on fire,
Then pack it back up,
And send it to you.
