You have everything bought for you.
You're just a spoiled rotten brat.
If you ask your parents for money,
They hand it right over to you.

Why won't you just go get a job,
And work off some of that fat?
Then you won't be a tuffy any more.
But you're just too lazy to try.

You have everything bought for you.
You're just a spoiled rotten brat.
If you ask your parents for money,
They hand it right over to you.

TUFFY! TUFFY! TUFFY! TUFFY!

A tuffy!
You're a tuffy!

All of you kids who are spoiled,
Do us a favor and go away.

You have everything bought for you.
You're just a spoiled rotten brat.
If you ask your parents for money,
They hand it right over to you.

TUFFY! TUFFY! TUFFY!
