First time I saw you I was driving in my car
You smiled at me as you drove by
Next time I saw you I was drinking in a bar
Just trying to save the world

And right as time goes by
And still you're stuck inside my mind
And in my pen and in my head
And in my cigaratte in bed
I want you now
Please tell me how
When I go to bed at night
I just can't sleep you're on my mind

You're in my brain, I've gone insane
And now my life is one big pain
I want you now
Please tell me how
I'm just trying to save the world
From girls like you
Then three weeks later you were sleeping next to me
When I woke up
Sleep
It was just a dream
And right now as time goes by
And still you're
Stuck inside my mind
And in my pen and in my head
And in my cigarette in bed
You fucked me up
Now I give up
Maybe you would call it fate
I saw you twice in the same day
Once in a car, once in a bar
You've given me a mental scar
You fucked me up
Now I give up
