Hypocrisy

Your fascination proves beyond a doubt

What you need and what you can't live without

Powerless against your morbid curiosity

You're just as sick as those you're watching on TV

Enamor those who perpetrate

The media will escalate

Sleep well.... pretend it's not just right outside

Dependency on the suffering that otehrs have

Society makes your life seem not so bad

Mesmerized by the civilized world's decline

Desensitized by what it cannot hide

Thank you for your patronage

Packaged sterile sacrilege

Wash your hands & lock the doors tonight

YOU'RE THE SICK ONE
