"Silver Girl"

Oh sister Fontaine says hello
She's got a thousand scenes to go
Carries some centimes for the phone
Now life feels good
She's a silver girl

Once there was doubt in her thoughts
She never told no-one of course
Just lived alone with her grace
But life's O.K
Now she's a silver girl

Silver girl, do you still talk to the angles?
Yeah! is that so well, what do they tell you?
they say nothing you don't know already!

Come the salvation she will say
We'll turn the wind to blow our way
And if it does we will change this place half of the sky, that's what they say
Silver girl, I want you
Hey silver girl
Hey silver girl
