I've got a burning heart, keeps me moving
Keeps me looking for life
I got nothing but a memory of losing
And a brow that needs soothing so much yeah
And all my heroes are either gone, dead or forgotten
So much left undone, so much
And when I think about it, where were you
When the fences needed mending
You were just pretending
Yes you were
Now I say
Here I stand, here I am, right or wrong yeah
Here I stand
Here I am right or wrong - I will be what I am

Right or wrong
Here I stand, here I am right or wrong
And I'm up against the window, close enough for seeing
Looking at the day go round again
Waiting for midnight
Beautiful midnight hour
Here I stand (etc.)
I got a burning heart keeps me moving
Keeps me believing in life
Here I stand, here I am right or wrong
Here I stand, here I am right or wrong
I will be what I am right or wrong
Mmm mmm mmm
