Got a boat, got a car, got a house with a yard:
I'm still workin the best job I've ever had.
But I'd give it all away, every dollar that I've made,
If I could only bring you back.

There's a door that I keep closed; there are boxes full
of clothes,
But it's memories I'm wishin I could pack.
I would retrace every step; say the things I should have said,
If I could only bring you back.

But there's no words I can say:
Not a prayer I can pray.
No road that you can take back to my arms.
But you'll never be gone:
Our love will live on,
As long as there's a beat in my heart.

There's a smile that I still see, a voice callin out to me,
And a longing in my soul I've never had.

I wish I could touch your face, I would even take your place,
If I could only bring you back.

But there's no words I can say:
Not a prayer I can pray.
No road that you can take back to my arms.
But you'll never be gone:
My love will live on,
As long as there's a beat in my heart.

Got a boat, got a car, got a house with a yard:
I'm still workin the best job I've ever had.
But I'd give it all away, every dollar that I've made,
If I could only bring you back.
If I could only bring you back.
