When the sky is dark enough
You can see her glowing like an angel does
She comes and goes with the flow
She comes and goes without a worry in the world

She's all mine
I never thought love could come back around again
I'm in too deep, I can't retreat
She makes me feel just like I'm a kid again
She's all mine

I can't remember what it's like
Living day to day without her in my life
She comes and goes with the flow
She comes and goes without a worry in the world

She's all mine
I never thought love could come back around again
I'm in too deep, I can't retreat
She makes me feel just like I'm a kid again
She's all mine

She fell into a hole inside my heart
I have to be the luckiest by far
I know that she is all I'll ever want
And all I'll ever need

She's all mine
I never thought love could come back around again
I'm in too deep, I can't retreat
She makes me feel just like I'm a kid again
She's all mine

She's all mine, she's all mine, she's all mine
