Well you look into the water and the fish are dead
You close your eyes and all you see is red
Now you're all tied up inside your head
And I already forgot everything you said

When you think of all the things that I said to you
They wouldn't cut to the bone if they weren't true
You can keep em locked away inside your head
But I already forgot everything you said

Well you came to me when the night was young
But you could not stay for very long
You were looking for a place to unload you head
And I already forgot everything you said

Well you left with him but he changed his mind
You left everything that you love behind
Now I would take you back but the feelings dead
And I already forgot everything you said

Now you can ease your heart you can ease your mind
You can save your thoughts for another time
Because the sun is rising on your bed
And I already forgot everything you said
