Was it something that I said
That made you go away then
Is it so hard to believe in yourself
When you can't find the way

What you said wasn't right
"I don't need you anymore"
Yeah, the timing is right

So you're there looking at yourself
Find it hard to say goodbye
You wish life was a lot like your dreams
And you don't need no one else

What you said wasn't right
"I don't need you anymore"
Yeah, the timing is right

I will put you up
I will put you up
I will put you over my friends now
I will set you up
I will set you up
I will set you over my friends now

What you said wasn't right
"Well, I don't need you anymore"
Yeah, the timing is right

I will put you over my friends now
I will put you over my friends now

I will put you over
I will put you over
I will put you over my friends now
