Hard to keep my self satisfied and keep my head straight I can feel the boredom creeping in I keep writing to stay occupied These words on paper
what do i do now?
staring at this letter that i'm gonna send
these days drag on like they'll never end
dozing off in the car while i'm thinking about you Take a breath in let out a sigh
i keep trying till the day i die
Sometimes things happen to take forever
Feeling what im thinking (right now)
Feeling what im thinking (this is how)
I'm feeling what i'm thinking now (youre the one i'm thinking of)
Hard to think with this noise and its getting louder three pictures of her, is all i have I must keep myself poised and keep my headup
the music stops and i've lost my train of though
staring at this letter that i'm gonna send
these days drag on like they'll never end
dozing off in the car while i'm thinking about you
Take a breath in let out a sigh
i keep trying till the day i die
Sometimes things happen to take forever
Feeling what im thinking (right now)
Feeling what im thinking (this is how)
I'm feeling what i'm thinking now (youre the one i'm thinking of)
