"Someone Save Me"

Weathered, Hitting new lows Uninspired, I can't let that one show I'm so sick, of my routine monotone, is killing me Apathy, No sign of light Boredom hits, consuming time
Will Someone save me?
I'm going crazy
I'm wasting my time again
with the same shit everyday Weightless, thrown out the window frustrated, so red I should explode A change is long overdue sick of what i'm going throw Intoxicate and breaking down the silence breaks without a sound
Will Someone save me?
I'm going crazy
with the same shit everyday
