One light to the next, short distances between numbers of the world, power my machine so softly, but you can't hear me scream I go on and on and on...but no one hears me scream inside these four walls with pictures to remind me of you left a bitter taste in my mouth
I signed XO you tore it apart Tattoo broken hearts, inside this keystone state with open arms, its hear where I wait So cold, there must be a warmer place
I go on and on and hanging on, how long will I wait?
Inside these four walls
with pictures to remind me of
you left a bitter taste in my mouth
You signed XO I tore it..
Inside this keystone state
It's here where I wait
I'll never forget
I'll never forget
I'll never....
Inside these four walls
With pictures to remind me of
You left a bitter taste in my mouth
You signed XO I tore it apart
