i cant remember the last time i felt this bad and i didnt mean to throw it all away i wanted to leave, but knew that i should stay its the day after and im feeling sorry for myself now i know the problem and im gonna have to face it one day turn around its in my eyes im gonna try i cant remember the last time i felt this mad i cant believe im acting out this way what was i thinking?i let you push me away lets stop moving backwards and start running faster forget the past when we broke down and start building us back up now
