When I saw you standing there
It was crystal clear to me that it just wouldn't be fair for you to be stuck with a guy like me when i saw you yesturday in my shirt that doesn't fit
that you were ment to wear it every time i think
of all the things we did (hanging out, trying to get drunk)
I just want to know how i became the lucky one
When i was just growing up luck would never cross my path I would break a mirror under a ladder in the path of a black cat i never learned how to be cool the only "f" i got in school I can't belive you talked to me after you watched me play the fool

every time i think
of all the things we did (haning out, trying to get drunk)
I just want to know
the lucky one
when will it be forever? what was i really thinking?
I wasted time wondering why when we could've wasted that time drinking it will take more than letter to patch things up this time I only hope i'm lucky enough to win you back again as mine every time i think
of all the things we did (haning out, trying to get drunk)
I just want to know

you're lucky one
