You cant fuck with us, nope not gunna happen and you can spend your whole life rappin BITCH! we on a higher level, a bigger plateua way above lookin down on them weak hoes we got the game locked ain't nobody comin through no ones around to hold us down even if they wanted to, so take a step back (move aside out the way) the underground is comin through the family is here to stay.

Its time to recenize really whats infront of you, paranormal music with a rhythm you can boogie to. given you hot flashes, makin your body shake felling the bass between your toes like you in an earthquake. so keep your head bangin we know you like it rough, I feel the same sometimes I cant get enough that's how we do undinably the hardest. and garented to life to go the farthest.

[Chorus]
