Another night where I don't care at all
Give anything to erase every actions
Just need someone to help brace this fall
Clear my head and be my perfect distraction
Help me forget and be my perfect distraction
Can you help me now

(Chorus)

Be my wicked angel just for tonight
Wear this broken halo that matches your eyes
Be my tragic failure, my epic mistake
The pointless endeavor I continue to take
You're my favorite addiction
The perfect complication
You're my favorite addiction
My sick and twisted medication

No point in talking cause there's nothing to say
Turn out the lights and pretend everything ok
You know I run to you, you know I come to you
I know you like it that I want you to

(Chorus)

It's true, that I'm not sick, but I still need you so
Be my wicked angel just for tonight
Wear this broken halo that matches your eyes
Be my tragic failure, my epic mistake
The pointless endeavor I continue to take

(Chorus)
